

Customer Shipment Component Shelf-Life Blanket Conformance

Dear Valued Altera Customer,

This letter is intended to be a blanket communication of conformance covering all Altera® FPGA and CPLD components with regards to shelf life.

- Stratix® 10 and Agilex™ FPGA components received from Altera or an authorized Altera distributor with a product manufacturing date code that is less than 5 years (60 months) from the current date meet the Altera stringent Quality and Reliability standards and are covered under the Altera standard warranty.
- All other Altera FPGA and CPLD components (Generation 10 and earlier) received from Altera or an authorized Altera distributor with a product manufacturing date code that is less than 3 years (36 months) from the current date meet the Altera stringent Quality and Reliability standards and are covered under the Altera standard warranty.

In addition, please be aware that Altera has aligned the above shelf-life policy with the industry-standard JEDEC J-STD-033 specification.

Thank you for your continued interest in Altera products. Please do not hesitate to contact your local Altera sales or quality service representative should you have questions.
